

MARCHINI
BOTELHO
CASELTA

Advogados

Regulatory

We have an experienced, highly prepared team to advise clients on administrative proceedings brought before federal and state regulatory agencies in many different economic sectors. We assist in the evaluation and negotiation of regulatory changes with federal and state governments regarding the impacts of such changes on our clients. We also represent domestic and foreign clients in judicial challenges brought against regulatory measures, designing the most suitable solution to each particular case.